

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW TEST CHAPTER 1

- 1) Administrative law relates to
 - a) Legal status and liability of state.
 - b) The rights and liabilities of private individuals in their dealings with officials.
 - c) Specifies the procedures by which rights and liabilities are enforced.
 - d) All the above.

Answer:

- 2) Administrative law is a law relating to the administration. it determines the organization, powers and duties of the administrative authorities. by whom was this definition given?
 - a) Kenneth Culp Davis
 - b) Ivor Jennings
 - c) A.V. Dicey
 - d) John Locke

Answer:

3) Which are the sources of administrative law?

- a) Law of the land
- b) Acts and statutes
- c) Ordinances, notifications and circulars
- d) All of the above

Answer:

4) Administrative law as a law has seen its growth

- a) 19th century
- b) 18th century
- c) 20th century
- d) None of the above

Answer:

- 5) Welfare state is a concept of government
- a) State plays a key role in protection and promotion of economic and social well beings of its citizens
 - b) It plays the function of police state only
 - c) It provides stringent laws
 - d) None of the above

Answer:

- 6) What are the sources of Administrative law in India?
- a) Law of the land
 - b) IPC
 - c) CrPc
 - d) None of the above

Answer:

- 7) The doctrine which establishes a line of proper demarcation of proper boundaries for the functioning of constitutional law and administrative law is
- a) Doctrine of pith and substance
 - b) Doctrine of Waiver
 - c) Doctrine of Water Shade
 - d) None of the above

Answer:

- 8) Ordinances, notifications issued by the President at union and federal level
- a) Sources of Administrative law
 - b) Cannot be considered part of administrative law
 - c) Can be overruled by Trial Courts
 - d) None of the above

Answer:

9) In America the Sources of Administrative law are

- a) Statutes
- b) Common Law
- c) Implied Power of Administration
- d) All

Answer:

10) Less government is involved in the Economy, the better off business will be is related to which principle

- a) Laissez Faire
- b) Principles of Natural Justice
- c) Henry clause
- d) None of the above

Answer: