

COMPILATION OF SELECT CIVIL CITATIONS

"Supreme Court's Judgements"

Civil Procedure Code & Limitation Act

(Limited as per Index)

"A Friend on Lawyer's Desk"

Series 2014, Vol. 1

The Editor and Compiler has chosen and compiled certain important judgments of the Supreme Court in relation to the law points covered in this book, after carrying out a detailed study of reported judgments of the Supreme Court pronounced between 1950 to 2013.

A very detailed Topical Index has been provided at the end of this book to help the reader in speedy search of the relevant points, with brief note and running page number and paragraph number.

The lines marked with "*" and marked as "IMP" may help in finding the points that the reader is looking for and also in understanding the judgment. Some words and sentences have been highlighted in bold font for easy reference only.

For ease of reference, the text of the relevant legal provisions is provided at the end of the concerned chapter.

THIS BOOK MAY BE HELPFUL

1. To Advocates who specialise and the Advocates who intend to specialise in civil litigations;
2. To legal officers in Government departments, public bodies and statutory Authorities;
3. To legal executives or managers in corporate sector;
4. To law students pursuing LL. M. or research courses;
5. To candidates appearing for judicial examinations;
6. At once, it will provide certain important citations on a single law point;
7. It may help Advocates in preparing the arguments and also for ready reference during arguments before the Court;
8. It may help in dismissal or rejection of bogus, frivolous or meritless litigations at early stage of litigation and thereby precious time and resources of judiciary and innocent party can be saved;
9. It may help in reducing the numbers of matters which are remanded by the higher judiciary. Many times Advocates fail to properly plead relevant facts and/or objections which ultimately results into fatal defect for their clients. On certain occasions, the trial courts end up giving judgements based on points/ issues which are not found in pleadings. At times, evidences are looked into when the same are not referred in the pleadings.
